FIRST READING

Acts 8:26-40 (ESV)

An angel directs Philip to meet an Ethiopian royal official who is struggling to understand the Scriptures. Philip teaches the man about Christ, leading him to be baptized.

Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Rise and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is a desert place. And he rose and went. And there was an Ethiopian, a eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning, seated in his chariot, and he was reading the prophet Isaiah. And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over and join this chariot." So Philip ran to him and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet and asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" And he said, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. Now the passage of the Scripture that he was reading was this: "Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter and like a lamb before its shearer is silent, so he opens not his mouth. In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth." And the eunuch said to Philip, "About whom, I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?" Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this Scripture he told him the good news about Jesus. And as they were going along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "See, here is water! What prevents me from being baptized?" And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord carried Philip away, and the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he passed through he preached the gospel to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

EPISTLE READING

1 John 4:1-11 (ESV)

The chief responsibility of a Christian teacher is to lead others to glorify Jesus. True love begins with God and flows down from Him into and through His people.

Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

L: This is the Word of the Lord. C: Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA VERSE

“Alleluia. Lord, to whom shall we go?”

GOSPEL READING

John 15:1-8 (ESV)

Jesus is our True Vine and we are his branches. When we hold onto him in faith, he causes us to bear spiritual fruit in our lives.

L: The Holy Gospel according to St John the fifteenth chapter.

C: Glory to you O, Lord.

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.

If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.

L: This is the Gospel of the Lord. C: Praise to You, O Christ.

God bless all the people who bring joy and light into my quiet world with cards, visits and prayers. You are God's hands at work. Norma

Summer Camp Brochures As you're making plans for summer, remember Camp Luther of Nebraska has great outdoor camps of all types for kids and families! Brochures with more details are available at the welcome center. Scholarships are also available through our congregation; talk to Pastor Dunbar if you're interested. Visit their website to sign up now! www.campluther.org.

The LLL spring rally will be held Today Sunday, May 2nd at St. John's Lutheran Church, Waco in the Fellowship Hall beginning with registration at 3:30 p.m. The cost is $12.00 per person including the meal. The speaker is Dr. Dennis Brink from Concordia University who is the director of the new Ag Program. League presidents please call your group reservations to Raymond Luebbe 402-363-9829 by Monday, April 26th.

Changes in Social Distancing & Communion You may notice that we have begun to relax our social distancing in the sanctuary. Due to the decrease in new COVID cases and wide availability of vaccinations, portions of our seating will no longer be distanced. Pews near the back of the sanctuary will remain roped off for those who wish to maintain distance. Beginning in May we plan on returning to regular communion distribution at the front of church, using only individual cups. We continue to encourage wearing a mask as recommended by Four Corners Health Department.

Thank you for your patience and grace as we move ahead. God is good! -St. Paul Board of Elders

The Wednesday evening women's Bible study that has been meeting at church is being moved to Jami Utter's house for the time being. We will still meet from 7:00-8:00 on Wednesday evenings. Please join us for some time in God's word and great discussion! Address is 705 E Street, Utica. See you there!

Welcome our New Visitation Pastor! God has heard our prayers and provided St. Paul's with a new Pastor of Visitation. After meetings with Pastor Dunbar and our Head Elder, Rev. Dr. Terry Groth of Seward has agreed to begin making visits to our shut-ins starting in May. The hope is that he would be extended a call by the Voters later this month. Here is a message from him: Greetings, St. Paul, Utica! I look forward to being formally introduced to you at the worship services on May 2nd and to serving as St. Paul's new visitation pastor. By way of brief introduction, my wife Lorraine and I just celebrated our 42nd wedding anniversary and are blessed to have five grown children and ten grandchildren. I retired last July from teaching theology at Concordia University, Seward for 15 years. Before that I served as a pastor in Edwardsville, IL for 21 years. I'm grateful for this opportunity to serve in the parish ministry once again. See you soon! Pastor Terry Groth

Thank you to everyone who has kept me in their thoughts and prayers during this time. I have truly appreciated everyone's prayers, offers of help, friends who have sat with me during chemo, and all the other thoughts. God has blessed me with many friends and family. Thank you! Joan Naber

A heartfelt thank you is due the members and Pastor of St. Paul's congregation! Thank you for the thoughtful plaque, the many words of appreciation, the prayers, cards, and gifts received upon my retirement. Thanks also for your kind words, written and spoken, given to Bonnie. Together we rejoice and give thanks to God for the opportunity He has given us to serve Him in this congregation for nearly 9 years -- and the opportunity to continue to be with you.
Pastor Richard and Bonnie Gudgel

At the end of this school year Barb Erks will complete 25 years as cook at St. Paul Lutheran School and Church! We want to thank her for being such a wonderful servant and preparing so many tasty meals (over 400,000) for our students, staff, and the seniors of Utica. This "Thank You" will include a card shower, so please send or drop off your cards of thanks to the church or school office on or before March 20. Thank You. Climb aboard for mountains of fun at Rocky Railway! Join us for VBS June 7th-11th 8:30-11:30am! On this faith-filled adventure, kids discover that trusting Jesus pulls them through life's ups and downs. Open to kids age 4 through kids going into 7th grade. If you have any questions please contact Brittany Fulcer at the church office! Register at this link: vbspro.events/p/stpauluticavbs
