GLORIA (tune of Hark! The Herald Angels Sing)

Peace to all who live on earth, Grace and favor for new birth.
You we praise and glorify. Worship you, O Lord most high.*

*Gracious Father, heav’nly King To your name alone we sing;
Praise the glory of your name, Now and evermore the same!*

2. *Jesus Christ, the Father’s Son, sole-begotten, holy one,
Born on earth From realms on high, Born true man for us to die.
Lamb of God, You take away This world’s sin; Grant peace we pray.
With the Spirit You alone Are most high, O God the Son,
And the father God above, Praise we now Your glorious love.*

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Micah 5:2-5a (ESV)

Centuries before the birth of Jesus, Micah prophesies that a mighty king will be born in the humble little village of Bethlehem. He is our Good Shepherd who brings peace to the earth.

But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are too little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose coming forth is from of old, from ancient days. Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has given birth; then the rest of his brothers shall return to the people of Israel. And he shall stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. And they shall dwell secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth. And he shall be their peace.

L: This is the Word of the Lord. C: Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE READING

Hebrews 10:5-10 (ESV)

Christ came to earth to carry out the will of His heavenly Father. Instead of continuing the old covenant of the law, Jesus instituted a new covenant of salvation by his own blood.

Consequently, when Christ came into the world, he said, "Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body have you prepared for me; in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure. Then I said, 'Behold, I have come to do your will, O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book.'" When he said above, "You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings" (these are offered according to the law), then he added, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He does away with the first in order to establish the second. And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 1:39-56 (ESV)

Mary goes to visit her cousin Elizabeth who is also pregnant with a son, John the Baptist. Overwhelmed that God has chosen her to be the mother of Jesus, Mary bursts into song.

P: The Holy Gospel according to St Luke the first chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

In those days Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a town in Judah, and she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. And when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the baby leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, and she exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! And why is this granted to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, when the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord." And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked on the humble estate of his servant. For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name. And his mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation. He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts; he has brought down the mighty from their thrones and exalted those of humble estate; he has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his offspring forever." And Mary remained with her about three months and returned to her home.

P: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to You, O Christ.

CREED (tune of O Come, Little Children)

1. *The Father has showered His gifts from on high.
Most precious of gifts in the manger doth lie.
Our God and Creator has now sent His Son
That we with our God might forever be one.*
2. *The Savior, Christ Jesus, is our Holy King.
Of Him our glad praises this day do we sing
The cross in His future Brief sorrow would bring.
In His death and rising the Grave lost its sting.*
3. *The Spirit we treasure; Our hope can't grow dim.
For He is the star that hath brought us to Him.
Let Heaven rejoice as with Him we proclaim
That we are believers in God's Holy name.*

Paul Heidorn's family expresses their gratitude to St Paul congregation shown to him during 50 years as he enjoyed God's many blessings while teaching and working among you. During the time together memories, stories and relationships grew. Utica and Nebraska became home to him. When Paul received the call in 1996 to become your school principal, teacher, leader, coach, etc little did he know the remainder of his life would be lived in this friendly community. God has been good to him and his family. Since Paul's death we do say thank you for your prayers, comforting messages and words, memorials, hugs and thoughtfulness. We thank God for the blessings He has bestowed on St Paul Congregation and pray for continued blessings to each of you.

All Praise and Glory be to God, the Paul Heidorn Family
